Call for submissions to the Prince Mahidol Awards

The Ministry of Health is seeking for suitable nominees to the Prince Mahidol Awards <http://www.princemahidolaward.org> 2021. The Awards are given in Medicine and Public Health and they will be given to individuals or institutions who have:

1. Made a scientific contribution of internationally recognized standards which has been shown to be of important benefits to a large number of the people of the world, transcending national boundary.
2. Successfully made an application of a body of scientific knowledge to the benefits of a large number of the people of the world, transcending national boundary.
3. Have had at least two policies that have been influenced by their scientific work.

Submissions are invited from Kenyan citizens working in Kenya and/or Kenyan registered institutions operating in Kenya. The submissions must be accompanied by evidence of the claim to the above three high performance indicators.

The influence on policy, practice, and implementation impact within and beyond Kenyan borders must be demonstrated through links to such evidence. Relevance, scalability, and sustainability of such innovations will be taken into consideration. Innovations should focus on improving access to health service(s), quality of life, peoples' health, and reduction in morbidity and mortality.

Qualified individual/institutions are advised to send their submissions to the office of the Director General for Health by mail at dghealth2019@gmail.com to reach us by 23rd May 2021.
